ORGANIZATION WAS EFFECTED

Guilford County Good Roads Association.

Mr. J. Van Lindley Elected President of Organization—S. L. Trogon Secretary—Dr. Pratt Gives Number of Helpful and Practical Suggestions on Building and Maintaining Good Roads—The Officers.

Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock in the parlor of the Guilford hotel, an enthusiastic body of gentlemen interested in good roads met to organize a Guilford County Good Roads Association.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. J. Justice. Mr. C. G. Wright was elected chairman.

Dr. J. H. Pratt, State geologist, and Secretary of the Good Roads Association, was the principal speaker. He said that Guilford's roads were so nearly perfect that one might think there was no room for improvement; but he proceeded to throw out a few suggestions and helpful hints for both the building and maintenance of roads, and urged the Guilford County Association to profit by them. He said that the work was not merely a county enterprise, but that it was related to the progress and advancement of the entire state. He recalled a circular written by Dr. Benbow in 1882, in which the great value, local and otherwise, of good roads was pointed out and enlarged upon. Dr. Pratt said that the truth of Dr. Benbow's statements had already been manifested, and that the same can be made true in other counties.

He said a road should be located for permanency, and should not be through a certain section simply because one or two people wanted it to pass their homes. He pointed out the need of a good engineer to decide where it would be best and most advantageous to build the road. Such an engineer would be helpful, also, he said, in deciding what kind of a road should be built. He said the compliments received by the tourists in the New York-Atlanta tour was largely because of the good condition of the sides of the road, which was due largely to the fact that the ditches on either side were kept open; that the drivers hardly knew when they were on dirt and when on macadam. He said that the ordinary macadam road was a thing of the past; that asphalt was rapidly taking its place. He advocated asphalt or tar, where it was possible to bear the extra expense. He urged that it was as important to look after the maintenance of roads as to build them. He said that there was a law requiring sign posts to tell where a road leads to, but that the law was not being enforced; that it was as necessary to have signs on the roads as on streets in cities. He pointed out a very practical and feasible plan for raising revenue for the construction of roads, and said that the proposition would be submitted in his next official report. The plan in brief is for the county to vote upon the question of bonds; the state treasurer is to issue them at 4 per cent. The amount would be loaned (by the state) to the county at 5 per cent; the 1 per cent difference would in forty years take care of the bonds, and all the county would have to bear would be the interest.

The next speaker was Mr. W. L. Spoon. Mr. Spoon is a practical road builder, and his talk was full of sound common sense suggestions. His idea is to seek out a location for the road as a permanent fixture, and to build it right; not to waste money in improving a bad road. A 1 per cent. grade, he said, does not wash; a 3 per cent. grade will wash some; 4 1-2 to 5 per cent washes in a dangerous fashion; the grade should be as low as possible, in order to save money in its maintenance. He told how to build a road that would last—one that was equal to macadam, and far superior in point of repair. He advocated the proposed cross-state road, and knew of nothing that would mean more for material development.

Organization was perfected, a constitution and bylaws were drafted and read, and the following officers were elected:

President, J. Van Lindley.

First vice president, F. N. Tate.

Second vice president, J. L. King.

Secretary-treasurer, S. L. Trogon.

Directors—C. G. Wright, J. A. Davidson, R. D. Douglas.

A vote of thanks was extended to Dr. Pratt and Mr. Spoon and they were elected honorary members.

NEW JUSTICES APPOINTED

Associate Justice White, a Democrat, Made Chief Justice.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The most important nominations ever made by President Taft were sent to the Senate today. They were those of the chief justiceship of the United States Supreme court, to succeed the late Melville W. Fuller, two associate justices of the same body, the entire commerce court, consisting of chief justice and four associates and two members of the interstate commerce commission.

For chief justice of the Supreme court President Taft named Edward Douglass White, of Louisiana, a Democrat. For associate justices of the Supreme court he named Joseph R. Lamar, of Georgia, a Democrat, and Willis Van Devanter, of Wyoming, a Republican.

Upon these three men and their colleagues will devolve the task of deciding the most momentous cases ever placed before the United States Supreme court. They include the tobacco, Standard Oil, and corporation tax cases.

Other appointments were: Chief justice commerce court—Martin A. Knapp, of New York.

Associate justices of the commerce court—Robert W. Archibald, of Pennsylvania; William H. Hunt, of Montana; John Emmett Carland, of South Dakota; Julian W. Mack, of Illinois.

Appointments interstate commerce commission—Prof. B. H. Meyer, of Wisconsin; C. C. McCord, of Kentucky.

BURGLAR CAUGHT

Entered Horwitz's Store Sunday Night—Trapped by Horwitz Yesterday Morning and Arrested.

On Sunday night a negro broke into the store of A. Horwitz, 127 East Washington street, bearing away a complete stock of watches, jewelry, clothing, etc. He made an effort to rifle the safe, but found his equipment for safe-breaking a little inadequate and had to abandon the undertaking.

Yesterday morning the thief returned to Horwitz's store as a customer, but Horwitz, being either a man of telepathic powers or a physiognomist of unusual ability, fixed upon him a steady gaze, whereupon the darky's eyes immediately lost their borrowed luster. Horwitz closed the front door, and shortly after a brief conversation over the wire, Officer Patterson arrived, who, upon searching the person of the thief, found that he was carrying two of the seven watches stolen and a bank book exhibiting a recent deposit of several dollars.

The negro gives his name as John Jackson and says his home is in Winston.

GIBSONVILLE WEDDINGS.

Two Couples Married on Sunday Night—Death.

Gibsonville, Dec. 12.—Last week Mr. J. A. Davidson lost 4 valuable porkers by cholera.

Last Saturday the horses and the whole equipment of the livery business of F. M. Smith, deceased, were sold at public auction.

Little Bessie Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Yountz, of White Oak, was brought to Gibsonville, and after funeral services by Rev. E. P. Parker, she was buried in Gibsonville cemetery.

Mrs. Jane Yow, a most excellent Christian lady, wife of Mr. Henry Yow, after a brief illness with pneumonia, died last Saturday morning. The body was shipped to Randolph county where it was buried last Monday.

Sunday night at Mr. Charlie Foster's, Mr. John F. Haney and Miss Magnolia Wilkins, and Mr. Willie Ferguson and Miss Etta Allred, were united in wedlock, Rev. E. P. Parker officiating.

Two Fine Sermons.

At the Christian church Sunday morning and night the pastor, Rev. L. E. Smith, preached two powerful sermons. There were large congregations present at each service and the speaker made a profound impression. At the night service the music was in charge of the Greensboro Male Chorus, an exceptionally fine program being rendered.

Don't make love to the girl across the street just on the theory that we should marry our opposites.

Don't forget to put a Red Cross seal on your Christmas package. They are one cent each. Get them at any store selling fancy goods. Every time you use one you help in the war that is being waged on Consumption.

THE DEFENDANTS ARE ACQUITTED

The White Slave Case Ended Yesterday.

Judge Boyd Rules That Evidence of Government Does Not Bring the Defendants Under the Scope of the Law—Napier Held Under Thousand Dollar Bond in Defrauding Case and Case Is Transferred to Charlotte.

In United States Court yesterday morning the noted white slave case came to an end, the defendants being acquitted of the charge. E. Charles Quaster walked out a free man, but J. W. Napier was held to answer to the charge of using the mails to defraud. Later he gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance in that case.

Judge Boyd handed down his decision in the case yesterday morning and as was expected by nearly all who had followed the argument on Saturday he held that the case as presented by the government did not come within the act of Congress. In making this ruling Judge Boyd summed up the evidence, discussed the law and cited the report of the committee that drafted the law also the discussions in Congress, pending the passage of the act. He held that the testimony introduced did not bring the defendants under the statute and declared that the case was one that should be handled in the state courts.

The case of J. W. Napier and W. P. Duke, the charge being using the mails to further a scheme to defraud was continued and transferred to the April term of the Charlotte court. Napier gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance, while Duke was recognized for his appearance in the sum of $200.

G. W. Simmons, of Montgomery county, was arraigned on the charge of illicit distilling, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty.

Frank Trumble, the Forsyth negro who was convicted on the charge of raising and passing counterfeit money on Monday, was sentenced to two years in the Atlanta prison.

L. F. Shepherd, who was fined $100 for illicit distilling at a previous term, paid $15, having previously paid $25 on the amount. The remaining $80 was remitted.

John Shepherd, of Wilkes, was found not guilty of blockading.

There are only a few criminal cases on the docket and these will be disposed of today. Marion Wall and James Watson are charged with illicit distilling. There is a case against each of the defendants, the charge being resisting an officer in the discharge of his duties.

The Tobacco Market.

Tobacco sales for Saturday were unusually large and prices were even better than on Friday preceding. One warehouse reports that Mr. W. F. Garrison sold five lots at an average of 16 cents; Mr. C. T. Weatherly, 6 lots at an average of 21.8 cents; other sales averaged from 12 to 15 cents. Low grades are selling at from 8 to 12 1-4 cents. The higher grades are bringing as high as 25 and 30 cents, some going even to 37 1-2 cents.

Civic Department Meets Today.

The civic department of the woman's club will hold an important meeting this morning at 10 o'clock at the usual place of meeting—assembly room of Carnegie library. Important matters bearing upon the work of the department next year, will come up for discussion, and it is hoped that every member can be present. New members who have signified their intention of joining this department, are also urged to attend the meeting.

Return From Hunting Trip.

Messrs. James Bangle, R. F. Patterson and Tom Bangle, of Proximity, returned Sunday from a hunting trip in Randolph county. They were unusually successful, bagging 60 birds, 8 squirrels, 6 rabbits and 4 wild turkeys during the two days they were in the field. Their larder is well stocked for the holidays.

It is important that Greensboro shall make a good showing, as compared with other North Carolina cities, in the number of Red Cross seals sold here during the holidays.

MEETING OF THE LAYMEN SUNDAY

Service at Grace Church Well Attended.

Another Meeting To Be Held on Next Sunday Afternoon, the Place To Be Decided Later—Laymen's Meetings To Be Held in Several City Churches—Considerable Interest Taken in the Addresses Sunday Afternoon.

The meeting of the laymen at Grace M. P. church Sunday afternoon was well attended and three addresses were made, from which those present gathered many thoughts that will no doubt be of help in the campaign for missions. It was unanimously decided on motion of Rev. Melton Clark to hold another meeting on next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the place to be decided by the central committee.

Rev. Mr. Clark called on the missionary committee of the several churches to stand and it showed that a majority of those present were not members of missionary committees. He urged that an effort be made to have all the committees fully represented on next Sunday and have as many laymen present as possible. He commented on the fact that so many laymen were interested enough to be present at the meeting.

The meeting was opened by the singing of that well known hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," after which Rev. Melton Clark led in prayer. The Male Chorus, recently organized, rendered a couple of selections to the enjoyment of all present. An effort will be made to have this musical organization have in charge the music for next Sunday afternoon also.

Mr. F. P. Hobgood, who presided, explained the purpose of the meeting and introduced Mr. A. M. Seales, who spoke on "Fulfilling Promises." "We have met for a definite purpose," said Mr. Seales. "Last January we made certain promises to our church and to God and at our anniversary services next January we want to show that those promises have been fulfilled. Are we working or were those promises made in a burst of enthusiasm for effect?"

The speaker then enumerated the promises made. We promised to study prayer, work and give a specific amount for foreign missions. He declared that he believed the people had been studying missions as never before, that they were praying for missions as never before and were working in the interest of the heathen as never before. But, continued the speaker, we are not doing as much as we should do along each of the above lines. As to the giving to the cause, the reports in January would show for themselves and he hoped each church would report all pledges paid. He enumerated some of the many reasons why the promises should be carried out.

Mr. Chas. A. Hines spoke on "Every Member Canvassed," and brought out the fact that this is one thing around which the other features of the missionary work revolves, in that it is the meat of the whole campaign. The work is educational and the canvasser should not, Mr. Hines said, merely go to a member of his church in order to get a subscription for his work far beyond that. He should explain the work and give the member a clear conception of what the contribution was for, he should endeavor to get that member interested in the cause. The work should not be gone about like begging money, but rather the matter should be presented an opportunity to give to such a worthy cause. When this is done one of the greatest obstacles is overcome, said the speaker.

Mr. C. H. Ireland then spoke on the "Educational Campaign." The people have been impressed in the past with the fact that it is their duty to contribute to the cause of missions, said the speaker, when they should be educated through the presentation of the love of Christ for humanity. It should be impressed upon them that Christ loved each one and had blessed the people of this country and it should be a great privilege to help carry His name to those who know him not. He urged the adoption of the duplex system of envelopes and the weekly offering. The mission study classes were declared by the speaker to be a great educational factor and he urged that classes be established in each church.

Mr. E. J. Davis moved that the Ministerial Association fix the times for the laymen to have services in each of the city churches, the motion prevailing.

The program committee announced that several prominent speakers were being corresponded with and hoped to be able in a few days to announce a complete program for the anniversary services to be held on January 12, 13.

Mr. C. H. Ireland moved that the merchants be requested to arrange to let their clerks off a portion of each day during the services in order that they might attend the services. He suggested that some of the clerks be allowed to attend the morning service and others the afternoon. In this way it would work no hardship on the merchants. His motion conferred authority on the city press to make official announcement of the resolution.

It was decided to have the meeting next Sunday an experience meeting and all speeches will be limited to five minutes.

The meeting adjourned with the benediction by Rev. L. E. Smith.

PUPILS' RECITAL

Highly Interesting Program Rendered At G. F. College Last Evening.

Last evening a highly interesting and appreciated program was rendered in the auditorium of G. F. College before an immense audience of students, faculty and friends from the city when the pupils of the music department gave a recital. Every number was enthusiastically received, especially the pipe organ solo, "Angelus," by Miss Mary Helen Sheetz, and the piano solo, "Elfen Dance," by Miss Emmie O'Neil.

The following program was given:

Piano Solo—"The Dancing Lesson," Fredericks, Katherine Curtis.

Piano Solo—"March of the Pilgrims," Nevin, Mildred Barbour.

Piano Solo—"Waltz," Durand, Lida Parham.

Piano Solo—"a. The Poet Speaks," b. "Catch Me if You Can," c. "By the Fireside," Schumann, Adelaide Van Noppen.

Piano Solo—"Alba," Nevin, Mary Jones.

Piano Solo—"Buona Notte," Nevin, Ethel Barbour.

Piano Solo—"La Gazelle," Wollenhaupt, Lillie Baker.

Piano Solo—"Fantasia Mazurka," Marks, Ruby Elliott.

Piano Solo—"Canzonetta," Schutte, Lina Coltrane.

Piano Solo—"Sonata"—Op. 27-2, Beethoven, (Adagio Sostenuto), Willie Griffin.

Piano Solo—"Elfen Dance," Kroeger, Emmie O'Neil.

Piano Solo—"Valse Chromatique," Godard, Annie Adams.

Piano Solo—"Prelude"—Op. 3-2, Rachmaninoff, Elizabeth Smith.

Organ Solo—"Angelus"—Op. 106, Steane, Mary Sheetz.

COURTESIES ACKNOWLEDGED.

The Literary Department Thanks its Friends for Ready Responses.

The literary department of the woman's club wishes to make its acknowledgments to the Elks, for the use of their lodge room, so kindly proffered for the observance of North Carolina day; to the lenders of flags and plants used in the decorations, and to the singers, not members of the department, who helped to make the musical numbers on the program such a delightful and inspiring feature. And last, but by no means least to Mr. Frazier, of the Cable Piano Co., who is always ready to do his part and respond to any call from the ladies when it is possible for him to do so. In compliance with a request from the program committee, in his usual public-spirited way, he placed one of the sweetest toned instruments at their disposal, which added greatly to the pleasure and success of the occasion.

Notice.

All the members of the Colored Women's club are requested to meet with the educational and arts and crafts department promptly at 3:30 in Y. M. C. A. rooms, Suggs building, Wednesday, Dec. 14. DECEMBER TERM SUPERIOR COURT

Regular Session Begun Yesterday.

Judge C. C. Lyon Presiding—One Capital Case To Be Disposed of During Term, Which Is For One Week Only—Number of Cases Not Pressed and Others Disposed of While Grand Jury Considered Bills—Charles Reece Guilty.

The regular December term of Guilford Superior court for the trial of criminal cases convened yesterday morning Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethton, presiding. Solicitor Gattis, of Hillsboro, is at his desk. But few cases were disposed of yesterday by jury trial, the major portion of the time being consumed in going over the docket, selecting the grand jury and the court's charge. The session is for one week only.

There are only 79 cases on the docket, and a number of these were disposed of by nol pross or continuance. There is one capital case for trial, that of William Smith, an account of which case appears elsewhere. The other cases are of little importance and will consume only a short while. There are less than a dozen jail cases.

The following were chosen as members of the grand jury, Mr. W. S. Lyon being named as foreman: T. C. Fields, James DeLaney, C. W. Clark, W. E. Hiatt, W. A. Young, H. B. Kirkman, J. A. Fogleman, J. E. Benbow, A. R. Perkins, S. E. Dillon, E. E. Boon, W. S. Lyon, S. T. Wyrick, J. A. Coltrane, W. J. Rayle, T. O. Lowe, J. A. McCanness, S. L. Summers.

Judge Lyon's charge was heard with interest by the spectators present as well as by the grand jurors. He defined the laws covering the crimes the jury will most probably be called upon to investigate and reviewed the duties of grand jurors. While the charge was not an extended one it was most practical from every standpoint.

While the grand jury was examining a batch of bills the court went over the docket, some of the cases being continued, others set for trial and a number nol prossed. The four cases against Marion and Lester Butler, in which the defendants were charged with libel, were nol prossed. The case against Ben Hazel, charging him with the murder of his wife, was nol prossed, the officers having been unable to locate the negro. He committed the crime about two or three years ago. A case against D. R. Pitchford, charging an assault, was not pressed, as was one against E. M. Baldwin, charging retailing.

W. W. Gates and Sam Garrett were arraigned on the charge of assault. Garrett was acquitted, while Gates was fined $25 and costs. This is the case tried before Justice Collins some weeks ago, the offense having been committed on Thanksgiving Day.

Charlie Reece was found guilty of stealing a coat suit from Lil Fox, judgment being reserved. There is also a case in which Reece is charged with embezzlement to be tried later.

The cases against A. Horwitz, the defendant being charged with receiving goods knowing them to have been stolen have been set for Wednesday. The case against the Red C Oil Company is set for Thursday. The defendant is charged with selling oil that did not come up to the requirements of the state law. The alleged offense was committed in High Point.

Thomas Carriek, of High Point, was found guilty of violating a sewer ordinance of that city. The court will pass upon the legality of the ordinance later. J. D. Horney was fined $50 and costs for retailing.

Execution was ordered to issue in the appeal cases of Dave Whitfield, Sapp Hogan and Tom Watson, the dynamiters. The former was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary and the two latter 8 years each. They will be taken to Raleigh to begin their sentence in a few days.

In the case of Lesley Burton, the charge being carrying concealed weapons, judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

BRONCHITIS.

To Whom It May Concern.
Riverside, Ont., May 4, 1910. "I was sick for two years with chronic bronchitis and a consequent run-down condition. I received no benefit from doctors or from a trip which I took for my health and I had to give up work. Vinol was recommended and from the second bottle I commenced to improve—I gained in weight and strength, my bronchial trouble disappeared, and I am at work again. I want to recommend Vinol to anyone who is in need of such a medicine." Thomas Higgins. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)
It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cods' livers aided by the blood making strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in curing bronchitis.
Vinol is a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles, not a palliative like cough syrup.
Vinol contains no oils or drugs and is far more efficacious than cough mixtures, because it cures the cause. Try it. If you don't think it helps you, we will return your money. Fariss-Klutznigg Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Worms

Worms are certainly fine. I gave a friend a box when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape worm 45 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Freck, of Millersburg, Pa. I am quite a worker for Cassa. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood.

MANY THOUSANDS SAIL FOR CHRISTMAS ABROAD

Steage Accommodations in All Great Liners Overcrowded with Home-Going Travelers.

New York World.
The tremendous numbers of third-class travelers returning to old homes to pass Christmas with relatives is taken by steamship men to show two conditions, so far as the Italians are concerned—the slackness of work and thrift on the part of the returning immigrants. A fleet of twelve steamships leaves today for Europe, carrying at least 10,000 steerage passengers. This marks the height of the Christmas travel in steerage passengers.

Especially is today noted for the large number of Scandinavians from the great Northwest sailing for their old homes. The International Mercantile Marine Company has two special trains arriving this morning from the wheat fields in time for the departure of the St. Paul, Cedric and Lapland. The Majestic, which sailed on Wednesday, was overcrowded, and a large number were left behind. They were accommodated on the Gothland, leaving the same day.

When the Hellig Olay of the Scandinavian-American line sailed on Thursday, sixty-two men were left behind. They will be sent out today on the Cedric. Martin Anderson, of Stoten, Wis., was almost separated from his cousins, two women, who were on the ship. Anderson at the last minute insisted upon being allowed to sail, and he was taken aboard. On the Hellig Olay were 900 travelers.

Figures for the Christmas month show a large falling off in first class seagoers and a slight increase in second cabin travelers, with a tremendous increase in the steerage. The Gothland took out last week 1,420 steerage, the Cleveland 1,077, the Koenig Albert 1,114 and the Carpathia 1,521, all for the Mediterranean, the Gothland excepted.

The highest number of first-class passengers was on the Cleveland and the smallest number of first-class passengers on any steamer last week was on the Italia of the Anchor line, which carried one traveler, who will own the whole cabin. The St. Paul of the American line has five first-class passengers listed.

Since the first of last week more than 11,000 have gone out in the steerage, and, with the figures for today's sailings, it is probable that the total will reach 20,000.
The Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, the Christmas ship of the Hamburg-American line, leaving today, carries about 450 cabin passengers, with a full steerage.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage-all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. HARRY LEHR GETTING REST

Society Headliner Leaves Four Hundred in Gloom.

Baltimore Evening Sun.
Harry S. Lehr, the undisputed headliner in society, of Baltimore, New York and Newport, arrived in this city last Saturday and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Robert Lehr, of 16 East Madison street. Mr. Lehr, it is said, had suffered from a severe attack of nervous dyspepsia while at his New York home and his physician decided that just what he needed most was a complete change of climate and of scene.

Robert O. Lehr said this morning that his brother merely came to Baltimore to get a greatly needed rest, and denied emphatically the sensational stories printed in the New York papers as to the complete nervous break-down of the New York society man. He stated that Mr. Lehr had been very busy in New York of late and that as a result he had become very much run down, but that his condition had greatly improved within the past few days. Mrs. Lehr will join her husband here shortly and they will go to Hot Springs, Va., where Mr. Lehr will recuperate.

Several of the New York dailies state that there is gloom in New York's "400." Harry S. Lehr, cotillion leader and doer of surprising things in society, is feeling blue and out of sorts and has gone home to his mother in Baltimore. At least, that is the way the butler explained the situation, but the rumor is that the man who cheers up jaded society folk with his merry quips and his startling acts is worn out completely by the demands of the social whirl and has gone to Baltimore for a rest in the hope of warding off a nervous breakdown.

One of this morning's papers said that "the prospect is that Lehr will remain away for several weeks. The Beau Brummell of Fifth avenue, who won a place in society and a woman with many millions of dollars by his cleverness, his knack in playing practical jokes or doing eccentric things, has given up for a few weeks, at least, his vocation as society man. He disappeared most mysteriously from his accustomed haunts a few days ago and so suddenly many inquiries were made for him. Presently word was whispered around he was ill and was taking a rest."

Mr. Lehr has a ready if not dazzling wit. It flows constantly in a gentle, limpid stream. He can always produce a pleasant pun. His wit is usually mild and good natured, but occasionally it has taken a sharp turn. There is story to the effect that a society woman of somewhat candid speech once said to him:

"Now, Mr. Lehr, run right along; you're altogether too ladylike for me. I'm sorry I can't say the same for you. Mrs." replied Mr. Lehr.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

A Christmas Gift Worth Having

By GERTRUDE E. WHARTON

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"Mrs. Austin," said the clergyman, "you are on the committee on decoration for Christmas this year."

"Indeed, Mr. Rice, the others must get on without me. I have no heart for the work."

The good man turned away without trying to persuade her. He knew that there was a sorrow always with her and intensified on this Christmas anniversary. Her husband, Edgar, had gone away from her six years before and had never returned. Every year her little boy had asked, "Mamma, isn't papa coming home for Christmas?" and every year she had been obliged to put him off by saying: "Not this year, Arthur dear. Perhaps he may be with us next year." But she only said it to lighten the child's disappointment, for she did not believe he would ever come.

Edgar Austin was an artist and had an artist's temperament. He had married a woman with a very practical disposition, and when hard times came on and he was not able to sell his pictures she had lost her patience at the hardships she was obliged to endure and had told her husband that he had better leave such "idle work" as "daubing" and take up something that would bring more steady and practical results.

While Edgar was painting he forgot the troubles that were always present with her. It was her part to see that the rent was paid and the other necessities of life were provided. Since she had little money for herself she at last lost all patience and upbraided her husband. There seemed but one thing for him to do to save himself from breaking down under the strain—to go away from her. One day he took his little boy, who was then four years old, in his arms and after a long embrace went out of the house and did not return.

At times Mrs. Austin received small donations from the clergyman, which she supposed came from his parishioners. On this and what she was able to earn she managed to get on. She knew that it was her want of sympathy for her husband in his profession during a trying time that had driven him from her, and bitterly she rued it. She would have called him back, but she did not know where to find him. The child had been his constant companion, often playing in the studio, and the artist said that he could always do better work with his boy near him. For six years the easel had stood with an unfinished picture on it, and the studio remained in every respect as it was when Austin left it.

The day before Christmas the clergyman came to the house with a large basket on his arm and emptied it on the kitchen table.

"These things," he said, pointing to one heap, "are for supper tonight and these for your dinner on Christmas day."

"How many kind people there are in your church! But how could any congregation help being kind with such a pastor?"

"And, Arthur," the clergyman continued, speaking to the little boy, "I've got a nice present for you and one for mamma, too, which I shall bring in this evening before dinner that you may have it Christmas eve and enjoy it all Christmas day."

Mrs. Austin took great pains in preparing the supper, brought out a set of china she had received as a wedding gift and set an extra place at the table for the pastor. It was dark before 5 o'clock, and she lighted the lamps, and Arthur was delighted at the smell of the good things coming from the kitchen. He had forgotten that the minister was coming and, seeing the extra place, asked:

"Is that for papa?"

The mother burst into tears. With all the comfort on this evening, blessed to all Christian families, the husband and father was still away, perhaps dead.

At 6 o'clock there was a tap on the door. Arthur ran to open it, crying, "It's all ready, Mr. Rice!" But instead of Mr. Rice there was another, who picked the boy up and held him to his breast. The mother came from the kitchen to see her husband standing in the doorway embracing his child. Then in a moment she, too, was taken to the man's arms, and kisses from mother and child were rained on the artist's face.

"Wife," he said, "my fortune is made. I have sent you through Mr. Rice all I could earn—little enough, I grant—but now I can sell pictures as fast as I can paint them. A year after leaving you I found means to take me to Paris. A few months ago I painted a picture that was hung in the salon, and it made a great hit. But we must not stay here, where I am not yet known. Besides, my pictures will bring higher prices coming from abroad. We must go back to Paris."

Then they all sat down to supper, the happiness that had so suddenly come with this Christmas eve tingling in their very finger tips. But the transition was too quick for Arthur to understand.

"Papa," said the little man, "I thought you was Mr. Rice. What does it all mean, anyway?"

"It means," said the mother, "that when people are doing the best they can it's wicked for others to make it all the harder for them by complaint."

"Not wicked," said the father, "only a natural giving way under what nature cannot endure."

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Every man of the Ballinger type that the Republicans keep in high place or fail to drive from high place is an invaluable aid to the Democratic party. The Columbia State well says, "For the sake of the Democratic party, let Ballinger hang on till the Democrats put him out."

Augusta, Ga., was dissatisfied with the population given it by the census returns and got a recount adding seven per cent to her population. The incident is not calculated to inspire confidence in the thoroughness of the census bureau. If the government enumerators overlooked several thousand people in Augusta what assurance is there that they weren't similarly negligent in other cities?

George W. Perkins, a noted man of affairs in New York City, has retired from active business life and will devote himself to the task of bringing about better relations between capital and labor. He is a very rich man and in this respect does not make a big sacrifice. But he does make a sacrifice in giving up the chase for the dollar, in desisting from the joy of financial battle and conquest. In short he proposes to give himself to an altruistic enterprise and that is considerably better than for him to give a few of his millions. A man of his experience and insight should be able to accomplish a great deal towards putting capital and labor on a better relative footing.

President Taft appears to have done the logical and consistent thing in appointing Associate Justice Edward Douglas White Chief Justice to succeed the late Melville W. Fuller. Justice White had been on the Supreme Court bench longer than any other member. He was amply competent to fill the place. For the President to have appointed any other person would have been to fail to reward faithful service and to recognize the necessary qualifications when they were entirely obvious. To have named ex-Governor Hughes, as it seemed at one time the President would do, would have been to administer a totally undeserved snub to the other associate justices and most of all to Justice White. We don't think Mr. Taft is entitled to credit for breadth as displayed by appointing a Democrat. Justice White has been a member of the Supreme Court for nearly a score of years and is thoroughly disassociated from partisan politics.

Resumption of coinage of the half cent piece is being agitated in some quarters, the principal argument advanced being that it would save money for buyers, especially the poor, who need it most. In all cases now where the half cent figures in the price of an article the dealer gets the benefit of the odd half cent unless the customer purchases two of the articles. There are many things sold two for a cent, two for a nickel or two for a quarter, of which some purchasers desire only one. The half cent piece would enable them to buy exactly what they wanted at its exact price. If the demand for the half penny becomes general, Congress no doubt will give heed to it and order a resumption of its coinage.—Springfield Union.

It would be a very good thing to resume the coinage of half cent pieces. For one thing, it would tend to promote thrift—a characteristic in which too many people are lacking. As the Springfield paper says, the poor would benefit decidedly from the change. Many a mickle makes a muckle. "Take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves." It would be equally appropriate to say, "Take care of the half cent pieces and the half dollar pieces will take care of themselves." Give us the half-cent piece again and let business be done right on the dot, the purchaser getting just what he wants at its exact price.

MANY BIRDS ARE PLACED ON EXHIBIT

Guilford Poultry Show Begins This Morning At 229 South Elm Street—Outlook Is That Show Will Be Success In Every Particular.

The second annual show of the Guilford County Poultry Association is getting into full swing. Last night at a late hour officers, directors, and exhibitors were busy as bees arranging coops, decorating, etc., preparatory to opening to the public this morning. The directors say that the prospects are that they will be overrun with exhibits, and that the show promises to be the very best yet. In addition to chickens, there have been entered ducks, turkeys, guineas, pigeons and rabbits. The Buff Plymouth Rock Club will have some of their finest poultry on exhibition this season.

Today at nine o'clock the score will begin. Score cards will be issued free to all exhibitors. The judges are Messrs. Marshall and Simmons.

Admission is only ten cents to adults; children under 12 years of age, five cents.

The show will be in the storeroom, 229 South Elm street.

Odd Fellows, Notice!

The attention of all Odd Fellows is called to a very important meeting of Greensboro Lodge, No. 164, this evening at 7:30. A large delegation is expected from Golden Rod Lodge, Proximity, including their degree staff, which will confer the first degree on a candidate. The officers urge a large attendance to welcome their visiting brethren and that there may be aroused more enthusiasm and interest in Odd Fellowship in this city. Refreshments will be served during the evening. All Odd Fellows are invited.

Want Their Children Thieves.

The Kakha Khels, a tribe that inhabits the country of the Khyber pass, in northern India, are thieves and consider thieving a most honorable occupation. A young woman of the Kakha Khel will not look at a young man who would like to become her husband unless he is proficient in the art. The dearest wish of a mother is that her little boy may become a cunning thief. Every child is consecrated, as it were, at its birth to crime. A hole is made in the wall similar to that made by a burglar, and the mother passes the infant backward and forward through the hole, singing in its ear: "Be a thief! Be a thief! Be a thief!" They are probably the only tribe in India who glorify in thieving and raise it to the dignity of a regular calling.—Christian Herald.

A Word of Explanation

We wish to say we hope to the gratification of some who seem to have conceived the idea that because we do the best work our prices for picture framing is highest that this is a mistaken idea; as we are constantly proving that it is not necessarily the expensive material used but the extra pains taken and the perfected ideas through long experience in selecting the pattern best suited to the picture and fitting up the frames that makes them show up with the richer tone and beauty. While it is true we carry the most expensive moldings it is also true that we carry the cheapest and the happy medium which enables you to get the priced frame you like and also to get the best effects.

It will be—as ever—our pleasure to prove these statements. So don't fail to give us this opportunity and we are sure you will also be pleased.

WEATHER FORECAST

Tuesday increasing cloudiness; moderate winds.

THIS STORE WILL BE OPEN UNTIL NINE O'CLOCK UNTIL AFTER CHRISTMAS.

DO YOUR Christmas Shopping EARLY!

Happy Christmas time is on the way, and soon the bells will be ringing and children will be singing their merry Christmas songs, and Santa Claus will have passed on his heavy loaded sleigh. The double Christmas, sacred and secular, is imminent. Commercial Christmas seems to have right of way. Your Christmas duties of affection, kindness, charity should be done early. You will find this store ready with a splendid collection of Merchandise, from which you will be able to select some of the many presents that you will want to give your friends. Study the needs of those upon whom you would bestow your kindness. Give them something sensible and serviceable. These are the kind of gifts that mean most to our friends, and they are here in abundance. Let a broader intelligence and a gentler unselfishness be in control.

IS CHARGED WITH CAPITAL OFFENSE

William Smith, Colored, Burglarized Home of D. J. Gilmer Sunday Night and May Have To Sit In Electric Chair for His Crime—Was Arraigned in Superior Court Yesterday Afternoon—Quick Work by Arm of Law.

Yesterday afternoon William Smith, colored, was arraigned in Guilford Superior Court on the charge of burglary in the first degree, the offense having been committed on Sunday night. Mr. Thos. J. Gold, of High Point, was appointed by the court to defend the negro. The case will likely be set for trial this morning. It is the only capital case so far docketed. If convicted of burglary in the first degree the defendant will be electrocuted, the crime being one of the three capital offenses in the state.

Smith entered the home of D. J. Gilmer, West McCulloch street, on Sunday night and got away with several pieces of jewelry, worth about $300, and 60 cents in money. Only one person, Gilmer's wife, was at home at the time and she saw a negro leave and notified the police. In less than an hour Smith was under arrest. When arrested all the stolen articles were found in his possession, excepting a card case and purse and he told Officers Hepler and McFarland, who made the arrest, where to find these. Smith claims that he waited outside while another person went in and got the jewelry, the same being turned over to him to keep until Monday morning. However, as he had the entire lot of stolen stuff this confession is taken with a grain of salt.

He was tried before Judge Eure yesterday morning and held without bail for court. The grand jury filed into court in a body yesterday afternoon and returned a true bill. Mr. Gold and Solicitor Gattis will decide whether a special venire will be necessary and a time fixed for the trial this morning.

When arrested in addition to the stolen jewelry and money Smith had in his possession a gold watch, silver handled knife and silver match case. It is believed that these were stolen, but there is no clew as to their ownership. Smith lived here about six years ago, going to New York. He states that he returned here on last Friday.

MRS. DAUGHERTY'S FUNERAL.

Services Held From Centenary Church Yesterday Morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral of Mrs. Frank Daugherty, whose death occurred in Philadelphia Saturday morning, was held from Centenary Methodist church, of which the deceased was a devoted member, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. M. Litaker.

A large number of relatives and friends were present to pay their last respects to all that remained of a much loved young woman. There were a large number of floral designs, the members of Mr. Woodard's Sunday school class acting as flower bearers.

Following the services the remains were interred in Green Hill cemetery, the following acting as pall-bearers: Messrs. J. W. Merritt, C. C. Hudson, H. W. Clendenin, R. R. Hill, B. E. Smith and E. E. Bain.

The remains reached the city yesterday morning on No. 37, accompanied by Mr. Daugherty and Mrs. Woodard. They were carried to the residence of Mrs. Daugherty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Woodard, Arlington street, until the hour for the funeral arrived.

The Special Services At Friends' Church. Amos Kenworthy will continue the special services at the Friends' church this week. The hours for these services are 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Mr. Kenworthy is the guest of Mr. W. H. Worth, South Cedar street, and would be glad to see his friends there.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

Certificate of Dissolution.
To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greetings:
Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Aden Axle Lubricating Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No. — Street, in the City of Greensboro, County of Guilford, State of North Carolina (Joseph Aden being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served) has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations" preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 21st day of November 1910, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all of the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the records of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this 21st day of November A. D. 1910.

SO DECEPTIVE

Many Greensboro People Fail to Realize the Seriousness. Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Cure every kidney ill from backache to diabetes. We present the following case as proof.

Mrs. T. L. Leslie, 1010 Liberty St., Winston-Salem, N. C., says: "I have the utmost faith in Doan's Kidney Pills and know them to be a reliable remedy for kidney trouble. I was afflicted with this complaint for some years and often the pains in my back were so severe, that I was in misery. Having heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a box. The contents of this box brought great relief and before long my condition had improved in every way. I advise anyone suffering from kidney trouble to try Doan's Kidney Pills."

REV. T. J. OGBURN PREACHED AT ELON COLLEGE SUNDAY.

Edifying Sermon Before College Students—Recital On Saturday Night.

Elon College, Dec. 11.—On Saturday evening, Dec. 10th, despite the inclement weather, a large audience of students, villagers, and visitors greeted the Music Department in its mid-year piano and song recital. The program was well prepared and finely arranged. Piano and voice selections relieving each other in delightful and pleasing successions. The whole program presented a most delightful form of entertainment.

On Sunday, Dec. 11th, Dr. T. J. Ogburn, pastor of the M. P. church of Greensboro, and for 12 years Foreign Mission Sec. M. P. Church in the U. S., delivered a most interesting and scholarly discourse from Zachariah 12-20, the theme being, "The Commonness of Sacred Things." The sermon was a plea for the bringing of religion from the skies to everyday life and against the tendency to separate things secular and things sacred. Dr. Ogburn maintained that all things are sacred or secular according to the spirit in which we approach and use them. The sermon was listened to with rapt attention and received with hearty commendation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNeil, Brown Summit, came down to the Music Recital, in which their daughter, Miss Frances McNeil, was a participant, and spent Sunday as visitors and guests of the college.

President Moffitt has just issued two pamphlets in connection with his effort to raise $50,000 for the college. More than $10,000 of which has already been subscribed and paid in. These pamphlets are entitled "Elon College—An Appeal to the Brotherhood and Elon College—Special Fund of $50,000." The first of these pamphlets sets forth the admirable work which Elon has done during 21 years of its history and how it has worked its influence into the very woof and warp of the denomination life in all its activities, and shows why the special fund must be raised that the college may be enabled to pursue the normal development of its ideals.

The second pamphlet outlines the plan which the President is pursuing to raise the remaining $34,000 of this special fund; and also an additional chapter on the purposes of the fund and the results that may be expected to accrue from it, when it has been raised. These pamphlets will be mailed to all the friends of the college north, south, east and west in the bounds of the church and will no doubt contribute much in the way of healthy enthusiasm for the college and for the fund.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

Papa's Habit.

Chicago Record-Herald.
"Why are you sobbing, my little man?"
"My pa pa's a millionaire philanthropist."
"Well, well! That's nothing to cry about, is it?"
"It ain't, ain't it? He just promised to give me $5 to spend for Christmas provided I raise a similar amount."

Have you boils, sores and indications of bad blood? There is danger of diphtheria. Vick's Sarsaparilla will relieve this condition promptly—50c.

"Second thoughts are always best," quoted the Wise Guy. "That may be," admitted the Simple Mug, "but like most things that are best, they are most expensive."

Banks On Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingek, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequalled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria and Debility. 25c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

It seems that even when he is at home the weather man is generally away off.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Howard Gardner.

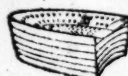

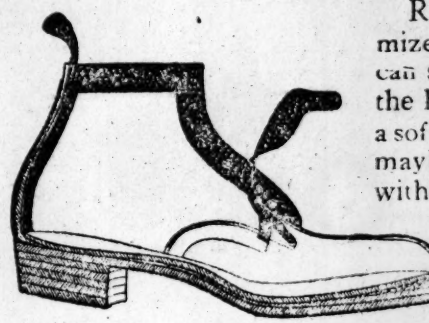

Even the woman who complains of heart failure can run up hill without getting out of breath about it.

SHOE MAKING FACTS

No. 1

CRADDOCK Soles — Counters — Heels

The life of any shoe depends on the integrity of the outer sole, the inner sole, the counter and the heel. No matter how handsome a shoe looks on the outside, or how well it feels on the foot—if the vitals are cheapened the whole shoe is weakened.

Right here is where many makers economize. No one can see the insole—no one can see the counter—no one can see any of the heel but the top lift—so they substitute a soft, spongy, flake leather for the insole and maybe use a counter made of canvas stiffened with glue and scraps of leather for the heel.

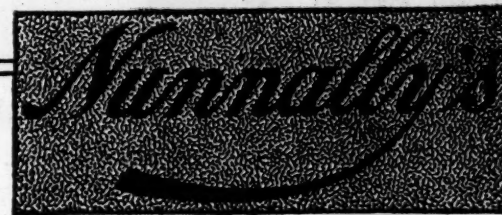

If there's any one virtue about the Craddock Shoe that is more pronounced than any other—it is the foundation. We have spared nothing to get the best. The sole (4) is the first grade of old method tanned steer's hide. The insole (5) is a slightly lighter piece of the same stock, selected for smoothness, pliability and toughness. Craddock counters (3) are cut from stout grain leather; each is a single piece. Craddock heels are solid all through. The top lift alone costs more than the whole heel of some shoes of equal price.

We've made every vital part strong. How we carefully cut and fit the vamps and tops of firm, fine leather is another story.

The Craddock dealer in your town will tell you all about it. We shall tell it in type shortly. Watch for it.

TIZ-For Sore Feet

Tired, Aching, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet? Corns, Calluses or Bunions? Use TIZ. It's Sure, Quick And Certain.

You Will Enjoy Using TIZ. The Most Pleasant Remedy You Ever Tried and Moreover it Works.

At last here is instant relief and a lasting permanent remedy for sore feet. No more tired feet. No more aching feet. No more swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more corns. No more bunions. No more callouses, no matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief just use TIZ.

TIZ is totally unlike anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleanses them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists 25 cents per box or direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Building, Chicago, Illinois.

DR KELLY TELLS OF CANCER.

Says English Physician's Discovery is of Great Significance.

That Dr. Donald Ross, the well-known English physician and army officer, had announced the fact that, practically speaking, the cause of cancer had been discovered was the statement made last night by Dr. Howard A. Kelly in an address before the Baltimore City Medical Society at the Medical and Surgical Faculty Building.

What this cause was Dr. Kelly did not intimate, but he said that Dr. Ross had made to himself the statement, which may prove to be of the greatest significance to the medical world.

Dr. Kelly's lecture was upon "A Surgical Trip to England and Scotland," illustrated by a series of unusually good stereoscopic slides.

Dr. J. M. H. Rowland made a brief address, and this was followed by a general discussion, participated in by members of the society.—Baltimore Sun.

Wants To Help Some One.

For thirty years J. F. Boyer, of Fertile, Mo., needed help and couldn't find it. That's why he wants to help some one now. Suffering so long himself he feels for all distress from Backache, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, Lassitude and Kidney disorders. He shows that Electric Bitters work wonders for such troubles. Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. Her First Poem.

She was one of those soft eyed maidens, sweetly innocent, shy and gentle. She was unaccustomed to newspaper offices, but, being ambitious, she managed to find enough courage to try winning an editor's sympathy, sympathy to be expressed by the acceptance of her poem.

"I have here," she said demurely, "a little verse I've composed. I really don't know what you'll think of it. You may not like it at all, but it's my first—that is, the first I've ever written for a newspaper—and I'd be very pleased indeed if you honestly thought it was good."

The editor kept at his work, now and then scowling, but not at the young woman especially.

"It's about a maiden tripping o'er the lea," she continued.

"What was the trouble?" asked the man behind the paper. "Couldn't she lift her feet?"—Philadelphia Times.

You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." Howard Gardner.

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress.

Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off.

The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off.

The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Certificate of Dissolution.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Aden Manufacturing Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No.

Street, in the City of Greensboro, County of Guilford, State of North Carolina (Joseph Aden being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served) has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations" preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 21st day of November 1910, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all of the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the records of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have heretofore set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this 21st day of November A. D. 1910.

J. BRYAN GRIMES,
(Official Seal). Secretary of State.

PLANS FOR THE GREAT REVIVAL

Ministerial Association Met Yesterday Appointed Committees and Adopted Resolutions, the Latter Being of Comprehensive Character.

At yesterday's meeting of the Ministers' Association the plans for the great revival to be held in the early spring were discussed and adopted. It is hoped to hold the revival during the latter part of April or the first of May and the preparatory campaign will begin the first of the year. The following resolutions, which were adopted, were prepared by the evangelistic committee, Revs. R. Williams, W. F. Staley and S. S. Myrick:

1. That the month of January be devoted to special preparations and organization; 2. That each pastor have his official members and Sunday school teachers make a list of every unconverted man, woman and child that they think their church should reach; with the address. That the pastors, from the names secured, shall make a complete alphabetical list and bring it to the Ministerial Association at our regular February meeting. 3. That on the 4th Sunday morning in January we have a complete exchange of pulpits, as far as possible, and that a committee be appointed from the association to make appointments for supply without public announcement as to who will preach at each church. 4. That in the afternoon of the above named Sunday at 3:00 o'clock, at the First Baptist church, we have a special meeting for church officers and Sunday school teachers, and others who desire to come, at which time a sermon be preached on "Soul Winning" by Rev. E. K. McLarty. 5. That the Ministerial Association at its meeting in January have a lively discussion on the "Exceeding Sinfulness of Sin," Rev. T. J. Ogburn to lead the discussion, and, if the association deem it wise, to discuss other fundamental themes at its regular meetings in February and March. 6. That each congregation hold at least one cottage prayer meeting a week during this period. 7. That each minister do what he can to get each family in his church to agree to hold family prayers and that the 5th Sunday in January be set apart as "Family Altar Day," and that this subject of revival in our churches be a matter of special prayer. 8. That each Monday morning at 11 a. m., the Ministerial Association meet for a half hour prayer service. 9. That each pastor emphasize congregational singing of evangelistic hymns. 10. That the association appoint a committee to present a petition to all merchants, most earnestly requesting that they close their stores at 9 o'clock on Saturday nights, after January 1, so that all clerks may get a good nights rest and feel like giving themselves to active service on the Lord's Day, the pastors agreeing to urge their congregations to do their shopping earlier in the day. 11. That every pastor ask their congregations to refrain from posting or receiving mail on the Lord's Day. 12. That a committee be appointed to express our appreciation for the valuable help and kindness of the press in the past, and that we most earnestly solicit their co-operation during this campaign, and that this same committee advertise our meetings in every legitimate way. 13. That a committee be appointed to confer with the heads of our educational institutions, laying before them our plans and seeking through them the most hearty co-operation of all teachers associated with them. 14. That a committee be appointed to lay this matter before the colored preachers and ask that they unite with our evangelistic efforts. 15. That each pastor use tracts and personal letters during this campaign. 16. That a program of work be placed in the hands of each minister.

The following chairmen of committees were appointed: To make appointments for exchange of pulpits, C. E. Hodgins; to visit merchants, E. K. McLarty; on advertisement, W. F. Staley; to visit educational institutions, Melton Clark; to secure co-operation of colored ministers, S. S. Myrick.

The ministers will consult with their congregations and arrange for services to be held by laymen during this month or the first of January.

Remember the Bazaar which is to open on Saturday in the Public Service building. The ladies of the West Market Philathea class will have many novelties suitable for presents.
